

A Roundwood Pupil...

is self-motivated,
actively listens
and thinks about their learning

is resilient and understands learning
is sometimes hard but approaches challenges
with a positive outlook and the right tools

navigates school
life with confidence and takes advantage of opportunities given

drives their learning forward and responds to feedback

takes risks and solves problems, understanding that mistakes are part of learning

is kind, caring
and enjoys
learning

uses their initiative

contributes to our school community
by working collaboratively
with peers to build strong relationships

embraces all
extra-curricular
opportunities
available

creative in their approach to
learning

deepens their understanding of the wider world
through curiosity
and an inquisitive
nature

communicates
well with peers
and adults alike
